Learn critical points of fair housing laws, including what constitutes illegal discrimination in housing, how to spot it, and what you can do to prevent it. The primary focus of this conference is on rental housing

Topics to be covered include:

- Fair Housing basics (overview of state and federal laws)
- Disabled tenants or applicants: reasonable accommodations and modifications in rental housing
- Recent state and federal fair housing cases
- Protections for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking
- Immigration status issues and fair housing
- Providing meaningful access to persons who are limited-English proficient

Invited speakers include representatives from Housing and Urban Development, California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, and attorneys specializing in fair housing.

With opening remarks by Lisa Baker, Executive Director of Yolo County Housing.

Refreshments (beverages and lunch) will be provided by conference sponsors.
