

Reminder of the TANA Exhibition Tomorrow.

Dear Colleagues and Community Members,

This is an invitation to join Taller Arte del Nuevo Amanecer (TANA) for an opening reception for Trayecto Anómalo, our most recent exhibition. TANA is a community-based art center managed by the Chicana/o Studies Department at UC Davis.

Upcoming Exhibition Opening Tomorrow, Thursday January 30th from 6-7:30pm: Trayecto Anómalo

On Thursday, January 30th from 6-7:30pm TANA will present Trayecto Anómalo, an exhibition featuring three Chilean artists, Danilo Espinoza Guerra, Iván Zambrano Downing, and Ricardo Fuentealba-Fabio, who is in Davis on a year-long fellowship. All three artists are also professors at the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. The exhibition opening will have a program featuring an introduction to the artists and poetry by Francisco X. Alarcón.

The TANA staff hopes you can join us tomorrow for the opening of Trayecto Anómalo. As always, thank you for your interest and support and please share widely.
